After publication of this article [1], the authors noticed an error with Fig. 2:

“Measurement properties are reported” should read  $N = 0/152$  for the German S3 CPGs and  $N = 0/166$  for the international CPGs instead of  $N = 39/152$  and  $N = 39/166$  respectively.

The correct Fig. 2 is show below:
